FOREWORD

TODAY'S GAMES:

Kelmscott and Canning can shape their own destinies for the remainder of the season at JOHN DUNNE OVAL. A win to Kelmscott would be a major step towards securing a second-semi-final berth but a loss would probably cost them second place. Canning will substantiate their premiership claims if they can win today and would also give themselves an outside chance of finishing second. Both sides look very evenly matched. They place great reliance on drive from their centreline, players and their rovers and both sides have an outstanding spearhead in attack in Ray Witt (Kelmscott) and Gary Fenner. However, Canning look a little stronger on the ball and more economical in defence and they could cause an upset to record their eighth consecutive victory.

Kalamunda's ability to kick goals should ensure plenty of entertainment in their clash with Kwinana at HARTFIELD PARK. Both sides play fast, attacking football and it has only been Kalamunda's inability to defend that has prevented them from winning games. Their defence will no doubt be found wanting again today. With Frank Legena in top form the Kwinana forwards can expect the ball to be delivered with precision and they have sufficient players in attack to score heavily.

Kenwick will view a big win against Armadale at GWYNNE PARK as a vital part of their plan to regain second place from Kelmscott. They should win but they're unlikely to have things all their own way. Armadale are the one side not in finals contention who continue to produce a competitive and enthusiastic side. They have a brilliant centreline of Peter and Max Van Helden and Gary Greer and the top four side that takes them lightly will pay dearly. Kenwick will be well lectured in this regard and are unlikely to throw away the opportunity of challenging for second position. However, the result will be a lot closer than most expect.

Maddington's two-week respite from top four contenders has been put to good use and their successful experiments at half-forward and on the ball should produce further results against Thornlie at THORNIE OVAL. The lack of motivation has taken the side "off the boil" in its last few games but their professional attitude and undisputed ability should rekindle enthusiasm in the next few weeks. They should be untroubled to defeat Thornlie who have steadily sunk to eighth place on the ladder with a disappointing four wins to their credit. Maddington will dominate the ruck and the centrelines and have too many forwards capable of kicking goals for the Thornlie defence to restrict their activities.

Gosnells have their final chance of staying in the finals fight by defeating Mandurah by a percentage-boosting margin at RUSHFORD PARK. It is highly unlikely that Gosnells will regain a permanent place in the top four this season but they should salvage some of the prestige they've lost over the past six weeks by winning today. Mandurah are always a more spirited opponent at home but they don't look to have the players nor the motivation to get up off the canvas and return to the winner's circle.

TIGER TALES

A blistering 15 goal second half of football against Kwinana last Sunday saw the Canning Tigers storm their way into the top four for the first time in three years. That makes it seven wins in a row and I think the last time we managed that Robbie Hayward was a 10 stone wingman!! The committee and supporters of the Tigers extend congratulations to those who have taken part in that string of wins and we know that any side who can break our "run" will certainly know they have played a game of football.

Our remarkable injury free run came to an abrupt halt last week with Brian Mangini and Ian Campbell joining Greg Sladden and Neville Vellacott on the sidelines. The old adage however, that a side is only as good as its reserves was borne out when Reg Lunt, Tony Johnson and newcomer to the club Jim McCann more than carried their weight in the game.

Paul Polsen also received severe concussion through an accidental clash and though club policy is to rest such an injury for a week there is not much chance of Paul adhering to this rule with today's clash against Kelmscott being perhaps our most vital game this season.

We take this opportunity of thanking Kwinana for their hospitality last week and it would indeed appear that the enmity which previously existed between our clubs has finally vanished and thankfully so, club football is to be enjoyed for its social benefits and not as a medium of creating bad will.

FOOTBALL GAZETTE 8

MIGHTY ROYALS

Last weekend Kenwick recorded convincing wins in both grades against the Thornlie club. Although the matches lacked the atmosphere of the week before, Kenwick followers were happy to see both sides notch up four points. The reserves match saw good performances displayed by Ken Staines, Mike Strang, Darryl Ogg, Mick Cornwall and Neil Fry, to mention a few. There were periods of the game when concentration lapsed on the part of the reserves side and it must be remembered that in the finals concentration for the full game will be a necessity. The league game was slightly closer than the reserves match although the result was never really in doubt. Good performances were put in by Greg Narrier, Gary Worthington, Alfie Stal, Jim Gilbert and Graham Nicholas. This weekend a big double against the Armadale Club will see Kenwick continue its way towards premierships in both grades. Club morale at present is running high so everyone keep supporting Kenwick functions and shows. A "girls night" featuring mannequin parade etc is planned for the near future so watch out for it. End of season (trips?) are in the preparation process — keep all ears to the ground regarding these.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

Last week we were visited by the "Tigers" and were shown how much Canning had improved on last years effort. Though opening the game in great fashion and still leading comfortably at half-time we were unable to maintain the early ascendancy and were completely outclassed by a powerful combination of skill and determination in the second half. All co-ordination disappeared from our game the second half and we only kicked five goals in the last two quarters whereas Canning added about fifteen. Final scores 22.21 to 16.9. Best players were D. McGlade, Ron De Boer and Don Baskerville.

The seconds was a more rewarding effort which took us within striking distance of fourth spot. After starting well with a good display of team football we fell back into our kick and hope system for the last three quarters. We cannot afford to do this against top sides. Final scores were 12.19 to 7.10. Best players were T. Riseberry, T. Manion and S. Muir.

THE HAWKS

Although our league side were soundly defeated in last week's match against Kelmscott the standard displayed by our team was a vast improvement on the previous week.

Best players for the league were Arthur Jones who put in another fine display roving, Peter Dougan playing in the ruck and Garry Green at fullback.

Congratulations to the Reserves side for another magnificent victory over Kelmscott. This side is destined for the grand final as they improve their game each week. It was a wonderful all round team effort and I'm sure the coach must feel proud of them. Best players in the reserves were many although those who stood out were Brian Antunovich, Murray James, Merv Jennings and Lee Bain.

The Under Nineteens enjoyed a very successful players tea on Monday evening. Three East Fremantle players attended training and tea with the Under Nineteens and the club is very grateful for their thoughtful advice and encouragement to our up and coming Senior Players. The three footballers from Old Easts were Mario Turio, Gerrard Neisham and John Sims. Special thanks go to Peggy Howden and the parents who prepared a splendid spread for the players tea.

THE BULLDOGS

Kelmscott in second spot and no way know are the players of the League side going to relinquish a second semi-final berth. This was clearly indicated in the way Gosnells were disposed of by a hard working team of 20 triers. Michael Johnson must be the recruit every Club can only dream about because his first up appearance created life and creativity in the forward line. Welcome back Warren Steward to further strengthen the back line. Impressive performances turned in by Eddie Donnes, Bill Woodhams and Glen Mezger.

The Reserves side are still in Premiership contention even though the loss to Gosnells did dent the armour of their confidence. The tide must be arrested, remember the great achievement of playing in a grand final side, let's hope the hard work of 1975 is not forgotten. Best players on the day, Tony Hilderbrandt, Garry Turner and Tony Bewsher.

Supporters! We need your donations to establish a premiership fund and with your efforts off field, be rest assured the players of both sides will respond in a positive manner on field.

Congratulations to the junior coaches for their efforts so far this season. Premiership flags are needed for our new Club-rooms.

DEMONS DIGEST

'NOT FOR NIX - IN '76!'

Today we return to Gwynne Park, as hosts to Kenwick F.C., the Royals. All Royals are invited to attend our friendly after-match drink 'n' yak session.

Last week against Kalamunda, the Demons recorded it's first winning double of the season, and the Reserves first win of the season. There's no reason why we can't get another winning double again today fellas.

The League side won by a handsome margin, the most significant thing being their good winning third quarter. Now that they have conquered this particular and peculiar fault, I see no reason why this side cannot beat any side including Maddington. They did have their lapse, but quickly over came it. There were many good players to choose from, but no one will argue that the man-of-the-match was Charlie Tenardi, with his strong work both in the air and on the ground. Next to Charlie, came some fine four quarter efforts from Billy Griffiths, Peter Van Helden, Col Towers, and a vastly improved game from Joe Lutey. Well done, all of you, make it a hat-trick today fellas!

The Reserves fully earned their first win of the season, when they all played together as a team, and proved to themselves at long last that they can win if they apply themselves right. Once again it was a Demon who was the man-of-the-match. This time it was Wayne Hand with a tireless 100 minutes game for his team. Sterling performances also came from Mike Meloncelli, Brian Barry and Peter Miller, as did all the players in fact. Congratulations to Rowie on his sheer perseverance with this team, and wish you all every success for your double today fellas.

The Under 18's slipped badly last week, losing by five goals to Maddington. I'm told that it was a bad lack of dedication that lost them the match. Don't rest on your laurels now fellas, that won't get you the flag will it? You and only you know what is required, so get out there and show them that the fire is far from out, you Demons!

CLIVE SIMCOCK. The Armadale Football Club wishes to express it's most sincere sympathy to the family of the late Clive Simcock. As our present club registrar Fish Heron, and yours truly, will tell you, Clive's first class efficiency and strict adherence as the league's registrar, set a standard for all other registrars to follow. This club not only had the privilege of knowing a fine English Gentleman, but has also lost a good friend.

TALK OF BULL

A welcome return to form by some of our league players enabled the Bulls to overwhelm a disappointing Mandurah side. The seconds match was a slightly different story however, as the young Mandurah players were fiercely determined and this factor combined with the strong prevailing wind turned the game into a scrumbly affair.

Bruce Clarke made a good come back, using his experience and ability to combine well with his fellow team mates and to notch up four goals 25 approx. A little more match practice will make Bruce a valuable member of the seconds side; well done B.C.!!

Best players in the seconds were Eddie Parker, Dudsie Reynolds, Vince Slavin, Mark Platell and the backline as a whole. The half back line was a family affair led by Captain Rooster and his two brothers-in-law Doug Bushell and Davey Walker. Dave also made a very welcome return to form and was the outstanding defender in this game.

John Duthie's performance at centre-half forward in the league match must have been very heartening to the selectors who were faced with the unenviable task of finding a replacement for Trevor Tregear.

Other good players were Paul Mountain, Barry Stockden, Dennis Cometti, Russell Jarvis (made the most of his opportunities) Noel Knight and Colin Walker.

The Annual Ball was a resounding success and congratulations must go to Garry Maskiell and his committee. "Doc" Platell appeared to enjoy himself as did Bruce Clarke and a few others who kicked on till about 5.30 a.m.

Mark Schmook must be congratulated on his club mindedness the way he normally sets runner immediately after participating in the seconds match. This is an unpaid position, not like the one he holds as a photographers model for a well known wig firm (Before and After).

Members are reminded to get their sold raffle books and money into the fund raising committee. If you haven't yet sold your book, please endeavour to do so quickly.

In closing I would like to thank Mandurah F.C., Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and our Life Members for their attendance last Sunday, whilst two minutes silence was observed for Mr. Clive Simcock, past League and Club Official who unfortunately passed away recently.
